Price Increase Notice — Possible Inadequate Notice

BT applied a price increase of £4.20 per month effective 26 January 2026, without evidence that 30 days' written notice was provided to this account in advance. The total financial impact over 3 months is £12.60. Under Ofcom's General Conditions (C1.3) and BT's own terms, customers must receive adequate notice of price changes. Where notice was insufficient, a refund of the price increase may be requested.

Your Right to a Refund

You are entitled to request a refund of £12.60 representing the 3 months of unauthorised price increases (£4.20 x 3). Additionally, if adequate notice was not given, you may have the right to exit the contract without penalty. Recommended action: submit a formal written refund request to BT citing Ofcom General Condition C1.3.
